Carol Lee is bride of Mr. Veign

The marriage of Miss Carol Lee, daughter of Mr. Arthur Lee of Waveland and the late Mrs. Lee, to Arthur Veign, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Veign of Waveland, took place at 11 a.m. Saturday at First Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis.

Rev. Jack Smith, pastor of Waveland Baptist Church, was the officiating clergyman. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Frank Deway of Piquette.

Mrs. Lee entertained afterwards with a reception at her home in Waveland and the couple left on a wedding trip to Florida. On their return, they will reside with her mother as Arthur Veign will be taking a course at Hattiesville, Ala.

The bride attended Bay High School and a Gulfport beauty college. She presently operates her own salon in Waveland. The groom was educated in Massachusetts schools.

A number of relatives and friends from along the coast and Piquette were here for the ceremony.

Marriage Licenses

Applications of local interest for marriage licenses issued during the last week by Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis were as follows:

Jimmy Ray Clacker and Carol Geneva Bourgoin, both of Waveland; Melvin Lewis Hucherson of Waveland and Mrs. Joyce Floyd Chandler of Mobile.

Beach Drug hit again

Narcotics and other medications were taken from Beach Drug sometime last Wednesday night, just one day short of a month after a $900 dollar robbery took place there.

Police Chief Lathorn Garriga said the building was entered from the rear by climbing a railing, breaking a glass transom above the door, still boarded from the last robbery. This case is under investigation by City officers and T.P. Naylor of the State Highway Patrol.

At 6:15 a.m. Friday Russell Perks, 47, of Columbus, Ohio, happily picked Chief Garriga's garage from which to take an empty coke case to redeem for cash at Jitney Jungle. Later in the day Perks riding a bicycle, was picked up at Henderson Point by State Patrolman Bill Kenny on a description of a neighbor who witnessed the theft, but said nothing, thinking the man had been told to move the empty case. He was promptly returned to Bay St. Louis and jailed by Garriga who is checking his tale of buying the bicycle in Columbus, with the Ohio police. A jeep driving juvenile who seized he had come to Bay St. Louis from Slidell for a swim Monday but "forgot" to bring his suit, which the Chief found slightly suspicious, was found to be playing hooky from school in the borrowed car, and was turned over to his parents.

Fondling charge brings five years

Dave Anderson was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary after a Circuit Court jury found him guilty on an indictment for fondling as the September term of court closed last week. An indictment for rape against him was passed to the next term of court.

A jury acquitted Roy Koenig who had appeared at justice of the peace court

Teen Times

To continue with our excerpts from the sage juvenile Creed of Dorothy Jean Runner: Prepare yourself for the future. You have to support yourself some day. Decide what you want to do and prepare yourself for it. If you don't, some day when you are digging ditches, you'll have regrets. After you choose, don't ever give up until you get to the top. Put your heart, soul and back into it and you will have everyone looking up to you. Give that bit of advice a little thought before reading further and catching up with current doings around and about town.

We regret it's impossible to bring joyous tidings about all three local football tilts Friday night as all three couldn't win due to the fact that Bay High's Tigers met the Hawks of North Central at Tiger Stadium. The Hawks displayed some fabulous passing but couldn't get the ball across the goal line but once, although it was a hard fought game all the way. Led by the quarterbacking of Johnny Penton, in action for the first time since the opener, the Tigers laid the boys from Rocky Hill down 26-7.

Holly Ruehl is in line for apologies. . . it was she, not Ellen McDonald who announced halftime activities at both home games, games, and did such a good job that she has the job for the remainder of the season. Holly even vocalized during the Tigers' spectacular halftime presentation of the famed ballad of Frankie and Johnny. Head majorette Janet Crowe was perfect as the gal 'done wrong' by Jimmy Lader whose death throes had the crowd in hysterics—he was lured to his fate by the curvy charms of Nellie Bly: Nancy Swords. Climaxing the show was the tricky finale when the band appeared to be completely out of control and clustered around the corpse, the cast of the drama hastily resumed uniform and were in perfect formation in a matter of seconds.

The Rockchaws had quite a night also rolling over John Curtis High of New Orleans 36-0 despite the fact that Ned Healy was sidelined with a fractured ankle. The Rock band made quite a showing with the addition of a marching group from St. Joseph Academy filling out their ranks.

It appears that most former Echo employees sort of naturally fall into journalistic positions in college. Harry Shattuck writes sports for Millispa's publication; Jimmy Galmatta was editor at PRJC and is majoring in Journalism at Southern, now we discover that Ray Kidd is a feature writer on PRJC's Dixie Drawl.

Newly elected officers of the senior E.Y.C. of Christ Episcopal Church are Holly Ruehl, president; Jay Sewell, vice president; and Lorraine de Montluzin, secretary-treasurer. Holly and Piji White attended a fall youth council at Rose Hill over the weekend.

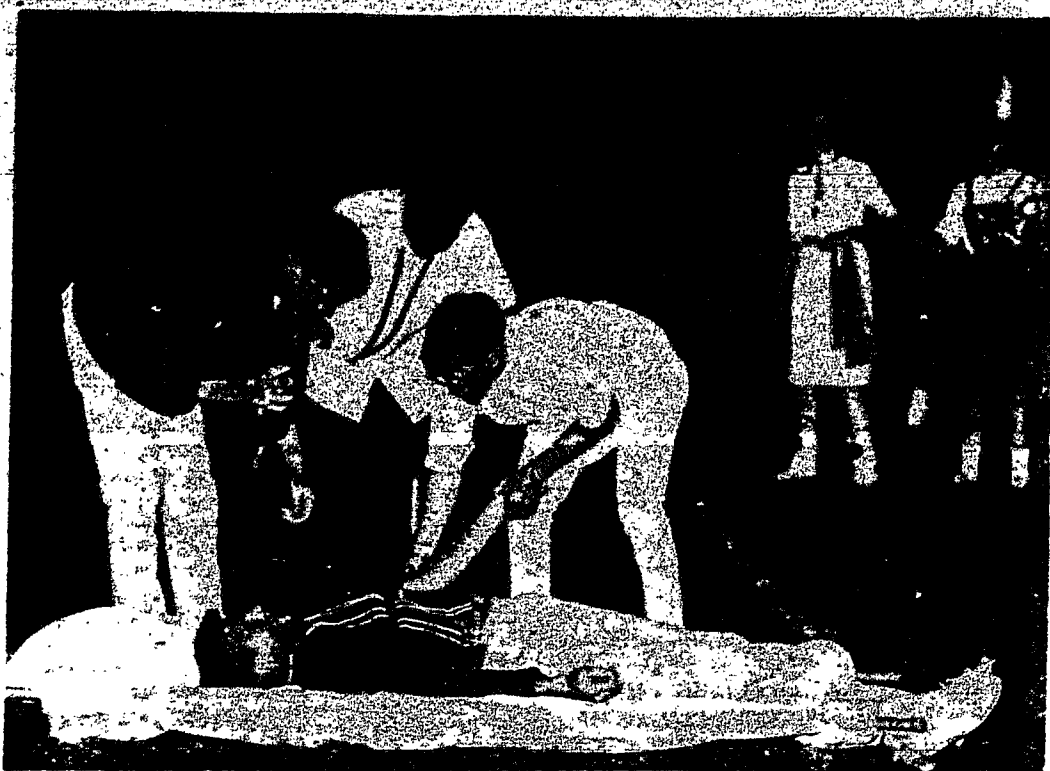

More from our very capable St. Joseph Academy—Stanislaus reporter: Friday SJA seniors initiated the new freshmen with a bang and lots of fun. The slightly green freshmen became cute little Pishie Freshies with huge fins, ears and whiskers (they were cat fish, of course). Seniors seemed very proud of their "little sisters" and they in turn were humble and obedient which was as it should be in the presence of the Greater Ones. At candlelight ceremonies later that night, freshmen became an official part of the high school. All in all it was quite a big day for all concerned.

More about the four lads from 'Liddypool'. The Beatles, (none other), left the country and millions of weeping, mourning girls on Sept. 21. This dreaded day was marked and solemnly observed by Beatles fans all across the country who wore black to show faithfulness and devotion to the 'gear dears'.

Speaking of the Beatles, have any of you guys noticed their boots? It just happens that one of two lucky Stanislaus boarders have and are casting it on them. In fact Billy Morales was nearly mobbed by a group of girls who saw his fab boots and looked no further!

Another St. Stanislaus boy undergoing close observation by the opposite sex is Bobby Dostay—best looking football player. . . wonder how that boy does it. . . and he doesn't even have a pair of the necessary boots!

There seems to be a mysterious new movement around town—the Mods and Rockers. If you would like to be a Mod or a Rocker, or just find out what they are, we can only tell you to contact someone who does know, and it's a rare person who does, believe me.

Who is that handsome young man from Bay High who has swept Pat Green off her tiny feet?

Some may find Bay St. Louis dull, but judging from the look in Joanne Horlock's eyes, things are pretty bright. Now what could cause that?

Poor L.J.M., tsh, tsh, she started out with two and ended up with ???, but then she can't win all the time, can she?

MYSTERY OF THE WEEK — What was that unidentified object which followed Illinois Marquez home from school Thursday? It's been kept rather quiet.

And, who is N.W.? Anyway we know one senior, J.B., who is simply wild over her.

Joe Ann Riggs is a lucky girl, and has a most generous employer. Mr. Earl Ramond is giving her the trip he won to the World's Fair and sending his wife along to accompany her. Joe Ann and Mrs. Ramond leave Saturday, Oct. 3.

Belated birthday greetings go to Tom Mayfield who spent his 19th in a Mobile hospital where he was to undergo surgery early this week. He did have a cake and received presents from a group of boys and girls in Mobile and is getting lots of attention from Mobile Candy Strippers.

More greetings—Aggie Bourgeois, a freshman at Ole Miss will cut her cake Sunday, Oct. 4, as will daughter Catherine Crider, if we can get the column written in time to bake one!

We now have a further report on St. Stanislaus — St. Joseph High School marching band activity thanks to Joseph W. Copely, Jr., director. For their opening half-time show Friday night the group performed Former SJA student Vivienne Korson leaves today for New York City where she will spend four days with her grandparents whom she hasn't seen in nine years. She will also be reunited with a cousin from France and while in the big city will take in the World's Fair.

Billy Bradford received just about the best news imaginable on his 19th birthday, Saturday, Sept. 19. Billy was notified that he will be able to continue on his pre-med scholarship at Loyola University for his second year.

We'll combine a welcome to Teen Times and birthday greeting to newcomer Bill Francis, Bill, a St. Stanislaus senior, lives on Vacation Lane in Waveland. He celebrated his 18th birthday on Tuesday, Sept. 15.

Larry Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cox of Bay St. Louis, celebrated his 18th birthday on Tuesday, Sept. 8th by enrolling in Mississippi State University and signing up for the draft.

Karen Williams, Mildred Parker, Ken Monti, Gautier Mayfield and Bob McCutcheon were among USM students who spent last weekend at home. Lorraine de Montluzin was elected president of the Junior Garden Club at Bay High School at its first meeting of the year Sept. 15 in the home economics department. Other officers are Nancy Swords, vice president, and Janet Saucier, secretary-treasurer. Thirty-one girls are enrolled.

Mrs. Rene deMontluzin, club leader, showed slides on prize-winning arrangements. She hopes to teach the members proper ways of arranging and appreciating the beauty of flowers. Throughout the school year, members are to make arrangements to distributed to various classes, with a tag on each to show which girl arranged the flowers.

LOYOLA FROSH — Looking over Loyola University's campus in New Orleans, La., are Margaret Horne, left, of Bay St. Louis, and Linda Munch of Waveland. Both graduates of St. Joseph Academy, they are among approximately 460 freshmen entering Loyola this fall. Margaret is daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M.D. Horne, 123 Sycamore St., and Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Munch, 230 Waveland Ave.

Maj. Randolph C. Bourgeois, Jr., 36, son of Mrs. Bourgeois, 447 Ballentine St., is attending a ten-month regular course at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., beginning Aug. 20.

Beauregard Junior High in the Crescent City and loves it. . . she's taking French and says it's her favorite course.

We want to welcome a brand new Teen Time reporter, Valda Pitcairn is going to keep us informed about activities of the new 50-piece Bay High band under the heading Tiger Talk.

We had already pretty thoroughly covered last Friday's half-time show when we got Valda's notes, but will add the names of Melva Luke as sheriff and Norman Lamb, Mike Poindexter and Andre McDonald as the medical team to names in the cast. Valda also informs us that Friday night the band will accompany the football team to the Harrison Central game.

Paulette Glass enrolled in Southern but decided Hattiesburg was a little too far from home and is now very happy in classes at LSU at New Orleans. Sally Hubbard, a 1964 graduate of St. Joseph Academy is the only student from Mississippi at Medical Technology School in Rochester, Minn. Her fellow students find her Southern accent fascinating.

Judy Bern who attended Bay High while visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ratenburg, is apparently quite successful in her chosen field, dramatics. She entered the Pasadena Playhouse in Pasadena, Calif. on Tuesday.

Bay golfer beat in coast finals

Mrs. George Armstrong of Moss Point became the first Gulf Coast Women's Golf Assn. champion Friday with a 1-up victory on the 19th hole over Mrs. John McDonald of Bay St. Louis at Sunlink Country Club at Biloxi.

Mrs. Armstrong, two up after three holes, saw her advantage whittled away to even as both players encountered puzzling difficulties. The match was even after the first nine holes and Mrs. McDonald went ahead at No. 15 with a par-five. Mrs. Armstrong chipped wide but sank long putts on Nos. 16 and 17 for halves and got down in two on the 18th green to send the match into extra holes. Mrs. McDonald, just short of the green on the long par 5, chipped well and then took three putts. On the 19th, Mrs. Armstrong hit her third just on the front of the green, stroked a bold putt past the cup and sank

Rocks win third, smother Curtis

Continuing their best early season in recent years, the Rockhounds completely overpowered John Curtis High from New Orleans in St. Stanislaus Stadium Friday night, in the 32-0 slumber, St. Stanislaus enjoyed its third win in as many games while John Curtis went under for the second time in three outings.

The Rocks scored at least one touchdown in every quarter, beginning when quarterback Malcolm Cohen intercepted a screen pass and ran it 36 yards to the goal, Paul Weaver kicked the extra point.

Quarterback Curtis Mathews made the next tally for St. Stanislaus, bounding over from five yards out in the second period to give the Rockhounds a 15-0 edge at the half.

During the third quarter Mathews scored on a 7-yard run and halfback Rusty Judkin ran a 28-yard touchdown. Weaver succeeded in the conversion from placement after Judkin's score. In the final period, Mathews had a 17-yard walk to complete the close-out. The John Curtis 11 never managed to get closer than the St. Stanislaus 10-yard line.

Loiscano tours nation with Canton squad

J. R. Loiscano, reports that semi-pro football can be fun, but it isn't all play, either. Since he joined the Canton, Ohio, Bulldogs, and they started their season late in August, J.R. has seen a lot of country as his team moves around its circuit which extends all the way from Charleston, S.C., to Quebec, Canada.

In the Canton Bulldogs' opening game against the Ruffians of Quebec, J.R. lost his helmet while running back a kickoff, but he tucked his head down and kept running anyway, walking right over a Quebec defender in the process. As he puts it, "... The fans went wild. They just love to watch good football. I really don't believe they care who wins."

Loiscano has been playing fine back so far for a team which hasn't been doing too badly. In addition to stomping Quebec 21-13 in the opener, the Canton Bulldogs have downed the Grand Rapids Blazer 41-7, Joliet Explorers 40-10, and the Wheeling Ironmen 24-10. Their only defeat came when the Rockhounds of Charleston, S.C., shot down the Bulldogs in a 14-0 shutout.

Logtown fields 1st grid team

Logtown fielded its first football team in history when Coach Red Davis sent his 100-pounders up against Piceyone for their opening trial. Logtown succumbed to the Piceyone gridders 13-7 after Piceyone rallied late in the last quarter from a 7-6 trailer.

On the fourth play of the game, Logtown's Keith Randall cut across the goal from 30 yards out for the first score, and Byron Walker ran the successful conversion. The Logtown defense held the score 7-0 in their favor until four minutes remained in third quarter when Piceyone made its first touchdown. Piceyone's winning TD came on a punt return in the closing minutes of the game and a successful conversion added the final point.

Coach Davis reported that he was particularly pleased with the defense activities of Rodney Wilkerson and Mervyn Breland in their initial showing, and that the Logtown 11 should give itself a good account when they play host to Gulfview at 1 p.m. on Oct. 7.

"R" in season, we decided to go around from various people about how they thought the courage to eat this seafood delicacy. Mind you, the fine, raw and salty and plenty of horseradish sauce. Let's face it, an oyster doesn't exactly look like a steak when it first pops out of the shell. Here are the answers:

John Niven, "I think the first oyster eater was a fellow who stubbed his toe on one while trying to catch the opinion that ancient man learned from watching the birds drop clams and oysters to the water before they swooped down for the meat. That was the first oyster opener a rock on some beach and it was a thief.

He gave us the shortest answer: "Ugh!" Niven won the round hands down. "Hmph," says the probably the same guy who first swallowed a entertained a group aboard the Doris M. for a trip to New Harbor Islands. He even took along a dog named Leo seemed to be doing all the work with the cook slept. Asked what was up, Leo replied he liked to do the cooking himself, but he'd wake up when it came time to do the dishes.

Walt had himself a fair session off the highway bridge, snagging both reds and specks in the 1 1/2-2 mile stretch with a sidewinder and bucktail trailer. Also on the beach near Jackson Ridge, Walt Rheume caught two beautiful speckled trout, one 10 pounds and the other two and a half.

Walt's fishing has been holding up well for the surf fishing on the beach near Jackson Ridge. Walt Rheume is selling out his share, as usual, but he recently had a disappointment. Getting a nice strike, Walt reeled in to find only the head of a trout. Yep, the sharks are still Wednesday, on Ray Kidd's day off, Ray and Walt went to work fresh water up Jordan River and were reeling both redfish and green trout.

Alfred Cospelich and J.W. Dupaquier tried to catch a 7-foot 5-inch alligator. The 'gator was mean and heavy to boat with the crew aboard, and to save the net, so they hollered for help to some fishermen. The only reply they could get was to hear the second period the Hawks broke loose with a vicious passing attack which carried them 84 yards to pay dirt in nine plays. The combination of a lateral to Kenny Randall from Eddie Peterson, followed by a pass from Peterson to Paul Cuevas made the goal for HNC, and a pass from Peterson to Wendell Ladner sewed up the point to put the Hawks ahead 7-0.

Properly shook up by the early lead of the birds, the Tigers decided to get their teeth full of hawk feathers and began to roll. Johnny Penton took the kick-off from North Central and, sharing the running with Dick Mestayer, walked it over to a touchdown with a final 9-yard sprint. Larry Johnson's successful boot tied it up 7-7 with 2 minutes, 50 seconds remaining in the first half.

The Hawks received the kickoff and held the ball only long enough for Mike Strong to intercept a pass near the midline and run it back all the way to the HNC 7-yard line. Tiger Stanley Burch carried it over from there to put Bay High 13-7 out front at the halftime horn.

During the third quarter, Mestayer ran over another TD for the Tigers against a Hawk team which hadn't lost its spirit, but was getting plenty tired. In the last round a hand-off from Penton to Mestayer was good for the final goal of the game, and Johnson's toe was good for the conversion.

Tigers gain on ground

BHS dumps HNC in grid thriller

The Tigers of Bay High School continued their winning streak, growing over the Hawks from Hancock North Central 26-7, in what turned out to be a whopping good fight. The Friday night Gulf Coast Conference bout in Tiger Stadium was no disappointment to anyone. The Tigers earned what they got and the Hawks went home without disgrace after putting up a magnificent battle against a superior 11.

After the Tigers won the toss and elected to receive, Danny Krankey took Wendell Ladner's opening kickoff and the Tigers started working up the field. They ran into trouble from the light but fast line of the Hawks right away, and the scoreless first quarter settled into a testing job for both sides.

In the second period the Hawks broke loose with a vicious passing attack which carried them 84 yards to pay dirt in nine plays. The combination of a lateral to Kenny Randall from Eddie Peterson, followed by a pass from Peterson to Paul Cuevas made the goal for HNC, and a pass from Peterson to Wendell Ladner sewed up the point to put the Hawks ahead 7-0.

Jefferson 11 halts VCJ streak

The Valena C. Jones gridders went under for their first time this year when they were jumped on by the John Jefferson 11 at Purvis last Friday.

John Jefferson managed to run up its entire 13 points before the end of the first half. Jones threatened frequently during the first two quarters but couldn't get the ball over for a score.

After a scoreless third period in which the VCJ Tigers dominated in ground-gaining, Martin Collins cut loose with a 17-yard TD run in the middle of the fourth. Russell Nichols ran the successful conversion for a final score of John Jefferson 13, Valena C. Jones 7.

Outstanding ground-gainers for VCJ were fullback Ulyles Sheppard with 112 yards rushing in eight tries and halfback Martin Collins who ran 85 yards in seven carries. Flanker back Russell Nichols snagged three passes to pick up 78 yards while quarterback Robert Whavers completed 8 out of 14 passes to run up 178 yards. In the defense department, Arthur Clementine and Ulyles Sheppard were credited with 13 tackles each.

With no game scheduled this week, Coach Willie Bradley will be giving his boys some heavy exercise in preparation for their encounter with Todd High at Poplarville on Oct. 9.
